patrick daniel baudet

Dr. Patrick-Daniel Baudet (1957–1993) was a French philosopher, distinguished Hellenist, and university professor.

Academic & Professional Highlights

- Distinguished Scholar: He held a Doctorate in Philosophy and specialized in Classical Studies, specifically Ancient Greek and Latin.
- Prestigious Appointments: He was a resident of the prestigious Fondation Thiers and taught as a university professor at the École Normale de Paris.
- Philosophical Collaborations: During his career, he worked alongside eminent international philosophers including Jacques Derrida and Michel Foucault.
- Early Passing: He passed away in Paris in 1993 at a young age due to complications from AIDS.

Are you researching his philosophical works, looking for specific publications, or looking for another individual with a similar name? Let me know how you would like to proceed.

AI responses may include mistakes. Learn more

Friends of Borges

About Dr. Miguel-Ángel Meizoso - Friends of Borges

Baudet was a distinguished scholar in Classical Studies -Grec and Latin- but unfortunately died at the young age of 40 years from ...

friendsofborges.org

Ask anything